

Is Volunteering Any Business of Government?

The Partnership Journey that created the Volunteering Strategy for South Australia

Christel Mex - SA State Government

Evelyn O'Loughlin - SA Volunteering Sector

Mike Feszczak - SA Local Government

THE IDEA

The background is a deep blue, star-filled sky. A network of thin white lines connects several prominent, bright white stars, creating a grid-like pattern across the image. The stars vary in size and brightness, with some having a soft white glow and others appearing as sharp points of light.

The Stars ALIGNED

THE PARTNERSHIP

Government
of South Australia

volunteeringsa-nt
volunteers are vital

Local Government Association of South Australia

BusinessSA
South Australia's Chamber of Commerce and Industry

Strategy Partners

Working

TOGETHER

Steering Group

CONSULTATION

Working Group Members' Network

YOUTH FORUM

MAGV

SURVEY

ACT
PARTNERSHIP

National Volunteer Strategy

ROUND
TABLE 1

ROUND
TABLE 2

State Strategy Working Group

Roundtables

Stakeholder Survey Results

VOLUNTEERING
Strategy

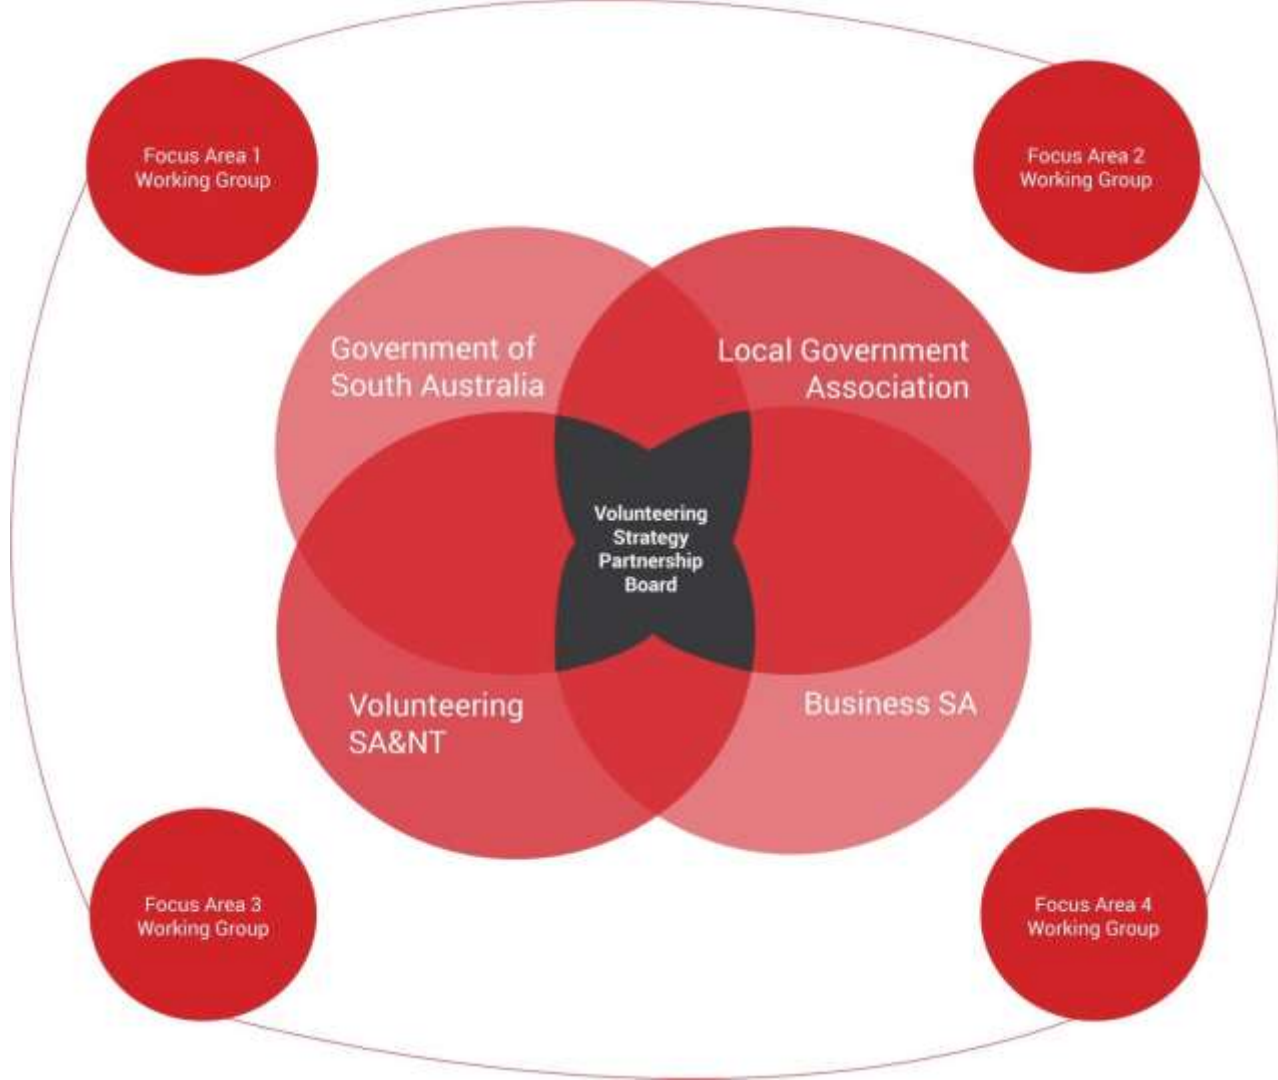

FOR SOUTH AUSTRALIA

2014 - 2020

A six year, cross-sector Volunteering Strategy for South Australia has been developed to improve the experience of volunteers, enhance the outcomes for volunteer involving organisations, and help maintain a volunteer participation rate of 70% or better.

Partnership Board

THE WORKING GROUPS

IMPACT

VOLUNTEERING
Strategy

FOR SOUTH AUSTRALIA

2014 - 2020

The Vision

Volunteering is fundamental to our communities and a vital part of being Australian.

Strategic Outcomes

- Volunteering is an integral part of life's journey
- Volunteering connects our communities
- Volunteering improves health and wellbeing of our citizens