

23rd International Association
For
Volunteer Effort World Volunteer Conference(IAVE)
17th-21st of September 2014, Gold Coast- Australia

SRCS Volunteer Management & Role

Preparing by
Eng. Osama Mustafa Suliman
Ass. Program Coordinator – SRCS
IAVE NR for Sudan

SRCS Establishment & Legal Base

Structure: It has 15 State Branches out of 17 States that comprises the Republic of Sudan.

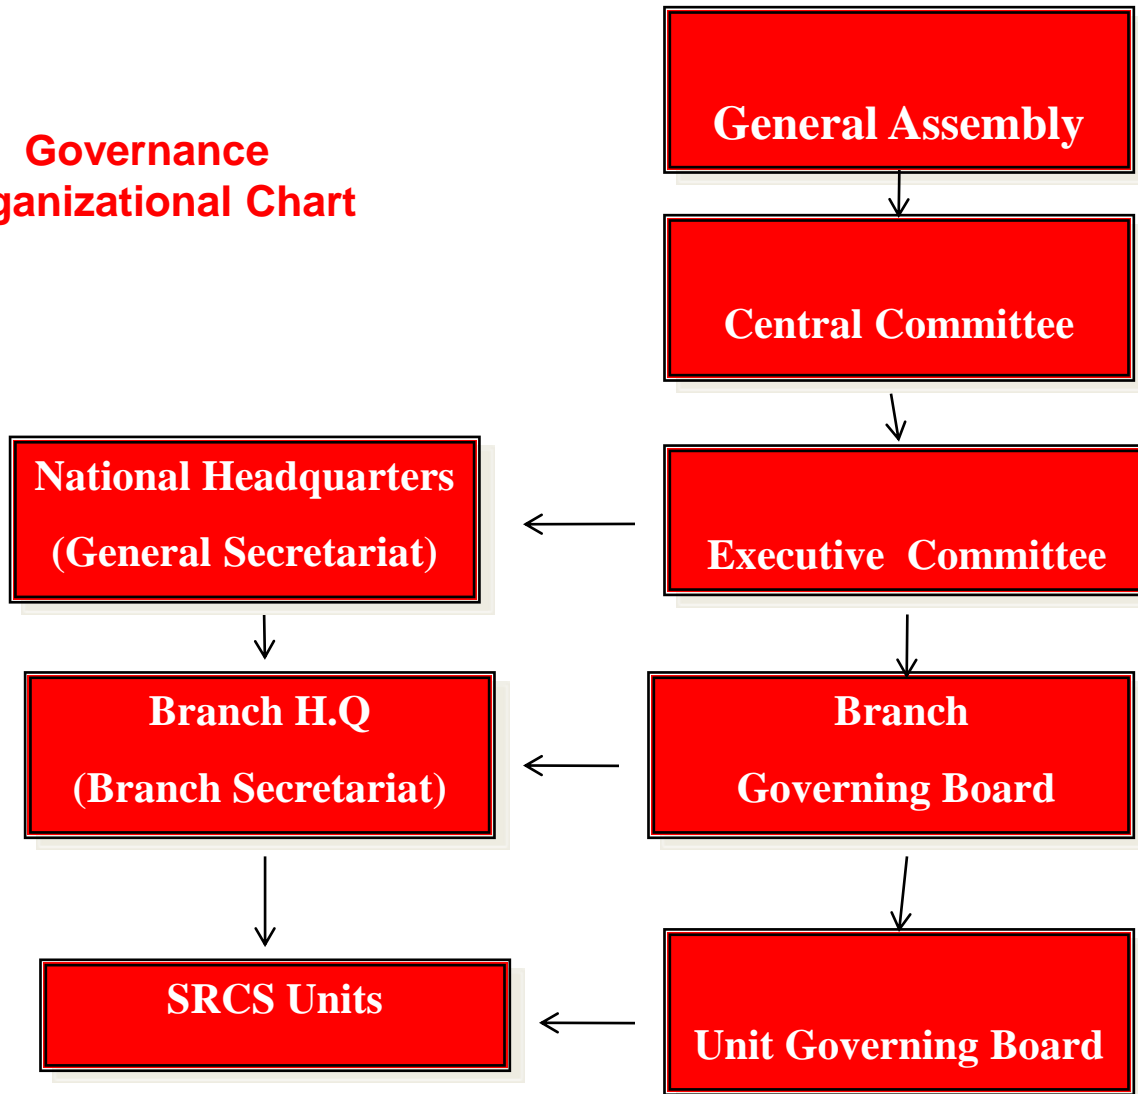

Human Resources: volunteer base of 350,000, 10% active (35,000)

Currently employs over 946 staff nationwide (70 paid staff are based in NHQ)

Sudanese Red Crescent Society (SRCS)

Governance Organizational Chart

SRCS has defined the voluntary work as:

"any activity performed by the individual or group of individuals without expecting benefits".

Volunteer hours working per week (6-10)

Series of volunteer Management Manual

- 🇸🇩 Volunteer Policy
- 🇸🇩 Volunteers' Structure
- 🇸🇩 Implementation Guide
- 🇸🇩 The Rules & Regulation

Volunteer Policy

Sudanese Red Crescent volunteering program aims at achieving the following:

- 1. Attract volunteers and maintain them by disseminating and promoting volunteering concepts.
- 2. Established a base of volunteers to the needs of humanitarian work .
- 3. Promotion of a system and management to invest the volunteers' capabilities in the frame of the SRCS activities.

Volunteers' Structure

Hierarchical Structure for the SRCS Members

It is the institutional building which shows the volunteers' degrees, rights and duties towards the Society in different building stages, which is the institutional ladder for members' hierarchy.

Implementation Guide

How to recruit new members and retain them?

How to establish a training centre?

How to issue a certificate?

How to hold a successful meeting?

How to set a work plan?

How to supervise and follow up?

How to evaluate the work?

How to write a work report?

The Roles & Regulation

Interpretations

Rights and Duties

Volunteer classified in SRCS

Description and conditions of the SRCS Volunteer

PMER

Management and organization of meetings

Volunteer Data Base Program

The program aims to assist branches (Offices of SRCS in states) in the work of a database of volunteers and confined classification (active, inactive), and quality such as (doctors, engineers, lawyers and consultants and technicians, students, and also the unemployed), and for the organization structures of volunteers, according to the Society is the registration of volunteers to their regions to form less representation is the units, as well as to limit the qualifications and knowledge they need training and organization of the reporting system according to Series of volunteer Management Manual.

Sudanese Red Crescent Society (SRCS)

