Giving back at Deloitte...

“We are incredibly privileged to work in a good organisation and receive steady incomes. In Australia, and across the Globe, not everybody is that fortunate... An organisation like ours has the responsibility to give back to the community.

I’m always impressed by the generosity of our people, and how willingly they contribute to the myriad of good causes out there. The addition of Micro-volunteering @ Deloitte to our suite of Responsible Business programs and initiatives enables us to live up to our aspiration to be an organisation that is not only admired for what it does for its people and its clients, but for what we do for our community.” - Giam Swiegers, CEO
